Plaintiff moves in limine to Bar Defendant Michael Antoniak from arguing, or testifying and or making any reference of obtaining a search warrant for Plaintiff's anal cavity; on the basis of his (Antoniak's) deliberately falsifying the search warrant affidavit and omitting critical material determining information and facts in order to obtain the search warrant such as: falsely claiming Plaintiff was uncooperative with the Defendants during the strip search, requiring Defendants to seek a search warrant for his anal cavity, for example omitting that Shannon L Hayek was in fact in possession of a purse that contained a drug kit, and 17 corner cuts containing remnants of "suspected heroin and as a result she (Hayek) was arrested taken into custody and was a known informant who had been taken into custody, and that Hagek had just been convicted
